MAKING MUSIC SUMMER CONCERT SERIES 2018 SCHEDULE

The 2018 Series is Generously Sponsored by Kirkwood Electric

June 16: The Bel Airs. "The Everly Brothers of Rhythm & Blues." With four acclaimed albums plus performances at festivals and clubs across the globe, the Bel Airs' signature approach and superbly crafted showmanship make for a memorable concert.

June 30: Miss Jubilee & the Humdingers Hot jazz and low-down blues. Led by vocalist Valerie Kirchoff, Miss Jubilee has been entertaining audiences since 2007 with an energetic blend of hot jazz and low-down blues from the 1920s and 30s.

July 14: The Wire Pilots. Contemporary world jazz. With the influences of many world flavors, such as Latin, American jazz, and Brazilian, these sophisticated yet accessible songs reflect an underlying pop sensibility that blurs traditional genre boundaries and appeals to listeners of all musical tastes.

July 28: The Roadhouse Kings. All-star classic country. From Hank Williams and Merle Haggard to Dwight Yoakam and the Mavericks, the Roadhouse Kings deliver high-quality country with style and brilliant musicianship. Traditional country with a tight presentation of well-known country covers. This concert is generously underwritten by Commerce Bank.

August 11: Brothers Lazaroff. Roots, Americana, soul, psychedelic. "...some of the most interesting and eclectic music in the city, pulling from Americana to psych-rock to jazz to world music..."
— Daniel Hill, Riverfront Times.

August 25: The Route 66 Jazz Orchestra. Big band jazz. A 20-piece jazz band dedicated to the preservation and promotion of Big Band jazz. A perennial favorite in Kirkwood.
