City of Kirkwood Moves to Semi-Normal Operations; Annual Events Return this Season

June 15, 2021

Kirkwood, Missouri: The City of Kirkwood is pleased to announce that we are moving expeditiously toward returning to normal operations. City Hall and other city facilities open to the public have returned to being fully open during normal business hours. Employees and visitors to city facilities are required to wear a mask if they are unvaccinated. City staff are working quickly to clear the backlog of service and maintenance requests that have occurred due to the pandemic.

Below are some of the events that will be returning this year:
